Entered according to Act of Congress 1862 by G.W. Brainerd & Co. in the clerk's office of the district court of Ky.
529-6

For in thy smile is joy and love For...ev...er blooming there,.....

And from thine eyes of azure light Comes hope to soothe despair Comes hope to soothe des...pair.... And from thine eyes of azure light Comes hope to soothe des...pair.. I turn to thee when sorrow's stream Wears..... deep with.....in..... my breast, A...gain I turn when hope's mild beam : : : Assum.....es its wonted rest.

I turn to thee

pp

when evening stars Look..... soft.....ly from..... above I turn from all their beauty brings To meet thy smiles... thy smiles of love.

From all I turn—from joy and life— All, all save love and thee—

With...out one word, one look of thine, What were this world to me... What were this world to me... Without one word done

look of thine, What were this world to me. I turn to thee—

when evening stars look..... softly from above— I turn from all their beauty brings To meet thy smiles..... thy smiles of love
